Profile

Having engaged in this trade for over a decade, Mr. He Qian has focused on legal services for capital markets. He has provided clients with diversified, in-depth and innovative legal services through the business model combining “non-litigation + litigation”. His legal services cover not only corporate IPO, refinancing of public companies, M&A and reorganization of public companies and other traditional securities legal services, but also asset securitization and structural financing, securities compliance investigation and management, dispute resolution in capital markets and other emerging securities business sectors.

Mr. He worked for a law firm in China and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. With rich pragmatic experience in the capital markets, Mr. He knows well regulatory policies and operation rules of the markets. Currently, he is offering professional legal services for dozens of firms planning to go public and public companies.
