Profile

Cheng Mingming has been practicing at Grandway Law Offices since his graduation in June 2008. He has consistently focused on providing legal services in areas including domestic securities issuance and listing (including the NEEQ), restructuring and refinancing of listed companies, and private equity investments, accumulating substantial practical experience. He currently also serves as a member of the firm's Securities Practice Internal Review Committee.

Throughout his securities practice, Cheng Mingming has primarily engaged in initial public offerings (IPO), refinancing, and mergers and acquisitions (M&A) restructuring for listed companies. He has provided legal services to dozens of enterprises in matters such as securities issuance, M&A, rights issues, equity incentive plans, and interbank market financing, involving various securities types including A-shares, enterprise bonds, and corporate bonds.

Cheng Mingming possesses both solid theoretical knowledge and extensive practical experience in securities matters. He is proficient in handling general legal issues related to corporate restructuring for issuance and listed company refinancing, as well as conducting in-depth research on complex challenges to propose viable solutions. He has provided legal services on multiple occasions for transactions such as IPOs, refinancing, and interbank market financing for these companies.
